

MUSEUM OF AMERICAN FINANCE

September–October 2009 Events

- Sept 8 “Actiën Handel: Early Dutch Finance and the Founding of America” exhibit opens. On display through October 17, 2009.
- Sept 16 Brown Bag Lunch: Screening of the award-winning documentary “We All Fall Down: The American Mortgage Crisis.” 12:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $5.
- Sept 22 Kaufman Series Event: Talk and book signing with Henry Kaufman on The Road to Financial Reformation. 5:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $15.
- Sept 29 Kaufman Series Event: “The Privatization of Risk” panel discussion featuring Robert Wright’s new book, Bailouts. 5:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $15.
- Oct 1 Brown Bag Lunch: Ray Raphael on “THE Financier: Robert Morris, America’s Original Bailout Czar.” 12:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $5.
- Oct 7 Kaufman Series Event: “Women of Wall Street” conversation with Sallie Krawcheck and Carol Loomis. 5:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $15.
- Oct 24 Annual “Great Crash” walking tour of the Financial District. 1:00 p.m. $15 per person; Students/Seniors $10.
- Oct 29 Kaufman Series Event: Behavioral Economics panel debate. 5:30 p.m. Members free; Non-members $15.

For information and reservations, please contact Lindsay Seeger at 212-908-4110 or lseeger@financialhistory.org.