

JOHN C. BOGLE

Founder, The Vanguard Group

John C. Bogle is Founder of The Vanguard Group, Inc., and President of the Bogle Financial Markets Research Center. He created Vanguard in 1974 and served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer until 1996 and Senior Chairman until 2000.

He had been associated with a predecessor company since 1951, immediately following his graduation from Princeton University, magna cum laude in Economics. He is a graduate of Blair Academy, Class of 1947.

Vanguard is the largest mutual fund organization in the world. Headquartered in Malvern, Pennsylvania, Vanguard comprises approximately 170 mutual funds with current assets totaling more than $1.6 trillion. Vanguard 500 Index Fund, the largest fund in the group, was founded by Mr. Bogle in 1975. It was the first index mutual fund.

In 2004, Time magazine named Mr. Bogle as one of the world's 100 most powerful and influential people, and Institutional Investor presented him with its Lifetime Achievement Award. In 1999, Fortune designated him as one of the investment industry's four "Giants of the 20th Century." In the same year, he received the Woodrow Wilson Award from Princeton University for "distinguished achievement in the Nation's service."

Mr. Bogle is a best-selling author of 10 books, including Common Sense on Mutual Funds: New Imperatives for the Intelligent Investor (1999); Enough: True Measures of Money, Business, and Life (2008); and, most recently, Clash of the Cultures (2012). He served as Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Investment Company Institute in 1969–1970, and as a member of the Board in 1969–1974. In 1997, he was appointed by then-SEC Chairman Arthur Levitt to serve on the Independence Standards Board.

Mr. Bogle served as Chairman of the Board of the National Constitution Center and was a Director of Instinet Corporation. He was a member of The Conference Board's Commission on Public Trust and Private Enterprise, and is a Fellow of the American Philosophical Society, and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. A Trustee of Blair Academy since 1972, he served as Chairman from 1986–2001. Mr. Bogle was born in Montclair, New Jersey, on May 8, 1929. He now resides in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, with his wife, Eve. They have six children and 12 grandchildren.
