Please join the Museum of American Finance
for the next event in the

2008 Henry Kaufman Financial History and Practices Lecture/Symposia Series

How Well Is the Media Covering the Economic Issues of the Presidential Campaign?

Wednesday, October 29, 2008
5:30 – 7:00 p.m.
(Q & A and reception
following the presentation)

Museum of American Finance
48 Wall Street (corner of William and Wall)
New York City

Members: Free
Non-members: $15
RSVP to 212-908-4110
(see reverse)

MU$EUM
OF AMERICAN
FINANCE

Economic problems — including the stock market crash; banking failures; the housing meltdown; the Treasury bail-out; job losses; the actions of the Federal Reserve — collectively constitute Issue No. 1 for the American people. How they are being discussed by the Presidential candidates and how the media is covering those discussions will make for a spirited session by several experienced journalists. The panelists include:

Kathleen Hays — Anchor of "On the Economy" and Economics Editor, Bloomberg News

Robert Lenzner — National Editor, Forbes Magazine

Dean Starkman — Managing Editor, The Audit, an online critique of financial journalism of Columbia Journalism Review

Myron Kandel — Founding Financial Editor, CNN, and Contributing Commentator, PBS, will moderate the discussion.

Reservations required.
To attend this event, or for additional information, please contact Lindsay Seeger at 212-908-4110 or lseeger@financialhistory.org.